Boston MA - Wang Theater

Taped by Ryan Wood

Balcony - Center Left Row 2

What a great tour this has been so far. Went with some friends that have been huge fans since we were kids and we always create memories that we'll remember forever. Haven't heard HANIIH or HIS since 1995 and I've still never seen I'm Afraid of Americans live until this. There isn't a bad song on the setlist. Sounded beautiful, the theater is amazing!

New tracks sound great and Reznor & the gang are as amazing as ever!

My recording for this night needs a bit of love from Ryan. I don't think the mic was plugged in, so there's a lot of clipping during the loud parts.
