

12/12/18 - Los Angeles, CA
Palladium Night #4

Well, I got busted tonight while trying to get the rig in through security. The lady that checked my bag went through every pocket and pouch; she even went as far as holding the bag in her hands to ~~feel~~ feel how heavy it was! Thankfully they allowed me to coat check it rather than having to walk back to my car. Last night's show left me with a bunch of back pain (I have 6 pinched discs) so I sat down in the ADA section ~~which~~ which was nice, but felt weird doing so at a NIN show. I did manage to record the show with my iPhone XR and the recording wasn't all that bad. We got another solid setlist with a few rare tracks "I do not want this" which was a nice surprise. One show is left for me which is Saturday Night!

Palladium Night #6

THE FINAL NIGHT OF THE TOUR!
Man, I got stuck in some terrible traffic tonight. Ended up leaving San Diego at 4pm and arrived at the venue at 8:15pm.
